

Uncle Bobs 7 Rules

As a man of the world and an avid partaker therein, Uncle Bob developed an outlook that served him well throughout his days. Here are seven of my favorite uncle's tenets. He had others but these stuck out over the course of decades.

In no particular order:

- 1) A person needs your permission to intimidate you.
- 2) Ignoring some problems will make them go away. But you have to be careful about which ones to ignore.
- 3) Don't lend someone money to use in a bet against you.
- 4) Be honest, but don't be stupid.
- 5) If you never play anything but aces, you won't win many hands.
- 6) Don't spend all your money on life's Coca Colas. Save some for the Champagnes.
- 7) The man who can rule his emotions can rule the world.
